Visas and Change of Provider (Release)

If you are intending on applying for a student visa or you already have a student visa, RMIT will provide you with an electronic confirmation of enrolment (eCOE) for each program that you accept. Students transferring to RMIT from another Australian education provider, prior to completing six months of your principal course, may be required to obtain a release from the current education provider before an RMIT eCoE can be issued.

If you change your residency or citizenship status once you enrol, your future package (if applicable) may be withdrawn, and you will be required to submit a new application as it relates to your updated residency or citizenship status.

Maintaining your Electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCOE)

Your eCOE duration assumes that you will make satisfactory academic progress within the program dates that you enrol. Any changes to your program completion date(s) due to unsatisfactory academic progress or any other reason may require you to extend your Australian student visa. More information about academic progress can be found here: <https://www.rmit.edu.au/students/student-essentials/assessment-and-exams/academic-progress/international-students>. If you are an English language student, you can find information about Academic Progress on this page: <https://www.rmit.edu.au/up/about/policies-and-procedures>.

International student appeals against a refund decision

A student may appeal a refund decision where they can provide new supporting documents for a refund application or demonstrate that RMIT has not followed its own instructions in assessing your refund. An appeal must be submitted within 20 working days of the refund decision notification.

If an appeal is unsuccessful, students will be notified. The notification will set out the reasons why the appeal has been denied and will include the National Student Ombudsman (NSO) contact details.

Refund appeals can be submitted at Appeal Form - Commencing International Student Refund - RMIT University.

If RMIT is unable to deliver the program listed above in this letter by the commencement date, RMIT is required to offer you either placement in an alternative program or a full refund of the unspent tuition fees.
